

2018 Business Engagement Letter

The purpose of this engagement letter is to outline your rights and responsibilities as a client, as well as Tax and Accounting Specialists involvement and commitment to you. By signing this engagement letter, you acknowledge and agree to the following statements to the best of your knowledge and understanding and agree to the following procedures with our firm. Tax preparation will not be initiated by our firm without this signed engagement for services each year.

Tax matters

- You understand it is your responsibility to provide our firm with all of the information required to complete your tax return.
- You will provide true, correct and complete information regarding your income as listed on the attached forms, 1099's and/or attached written summaries. It is your responsibility to provide your expenses in a clear manner. We do not audit these receipts, although we will evaluate them to ensure they are reasonable. You will retain for 7 years, all documents, receipts, cancelled checks and other records required to substantiate the records of income and expenses.
- You are to maintain written documentation supporting all amounts, including logbooks and receipts. You understand if a question arises regarding the interpretation of tax law, and a conflict exists between the authorities' interpretation of the law, and other supportable positions, that our office will use our professional judgment in resolving these issues.
- As a client, it is your responsibility to contact us immediately if you discover additional information that will lead to a change in your return.
- It is your responsibility to contact us if you receive any notice from the IRS. Please forward us the notice immediately; do not write on the official IRS correspondence. Tax and Accounting Specialists reserves the right to charge a reasonable fee for assisting in handling and responding to any and all IRS letters and notices.

Audits

The climate within the IRS and the state taxing agencies is continually changing in the field of audits. Due to the rise in this activity, please exercise extreme caution and care in assembling and preparing your records for your tax appointment. The following are procedures you are agreeing to and policies our office will follow:

- You understand all tax agencies have the right to examine your returns, and you are ultimately responsible for retaining all the documentation and records which were used to compile your returns. This is especially important in the area of business travel, entertainment deductions, business use percentage of autos and home use, other depreciable assets, bartering and trading activities.
- If there is a direct error on the part of Tax and Accounting Specialists, you, as our client, shall agree to limit the liability of the firm for any and all claims, costs, damages, losses and penalties of any nature whatsoever, so that the total aggregate liability of the firm to the client shall not exceed the firm's total fee for services rendered under this agreement. The client and the firm intend and agree this limitation applies to any and all liability or cause of action against the firm, however alleged or arising, unless otherwise prohibited by law. Both parties agree there is a one-year limitation period to bring a claim against the firm for errors or omissions. The one-year period will begin upon the date of signing this agreement. This is with the understanding that you let our office respond to all audits, letters and correspondence with the IRS or other taxing authority.
- You understand if your tax return is called for an audit, you will be charged an audit fee. This fee is to assemble your completed records in the manner which is acceptable for an audit. You will be charged a reasonable hourly rate to prepare and represent you in your audit. The audit fee also includes the audit interview, assembling the organized data into our audit format and the actual audit which usually takes three business days. If your records are not presented in an organized manner, Tax and Accounting Specialists reserves the right to bill at $110 per hour to organize your records.

Fees

The tax preparation fee we charge includes the following services:

- Tax preparation of your 2018 business return;
- Electronic filing of the federal returns and most state returns;
- One copy of your tax return for your files and if you file manually, a copy for the IRS;
- Year round availability to answer your questions by phone, mail and/or e-mail.

Due to the ever increasing demands on our services by clients and third party agencies, there are additional fees for extra services. As a client of Tax and Accounting Specialists, you are agreeing to the following fees and payment procedures:

- Your tax preparation fee is to be paid at the time of service unless otherwise agreed.
- If the fee is to be billed, it is to be paid at the time you receive your tax return. Any fee not paid within 30 DAYS will be assessed a $10.00 per month re-billing fee.
- If an additional copy of your tax return is requested, there is a processing fee of $40 per return/per year.
- If you need a letter written to a financial institution verifying your business tax return, there is a minimum fee of $110.
- If your records need to be organized and totaled, it is up to the discretion of your preparer whether Tax and Accounting Specialists or you will be organizing this data due to time constraints. There will be an $110 per hour fee for organizing your receipts to prepare your return.

Additional fees may be assessed for other extra services on a case by case basis, and may include:

- IRS negotiation of payments on past tax debts, including Offer in Compromise
- Sales tax reports
- Setting up a new business
- Business purchase consultations

We greatly appreciate you giving us the privilege to participate in your business tax filing. We look forward to continued years of service to you. This signed document serves as an acknowledgement that you have received the "2018 Business Tax Preparation Engagement Letter" and you have engaged Tax and Accounting Specialists, Inc to prepare and file your 2018 business tax returns. Please keep a copy of this Engagement Letter for your records. We will not be able to prepare your 2018 business tax return until your signed engagement letter has been received by this office.

Best regards,
